

outfit 1 - VARAHA

outfit 5 - VARAHA double breasted 1967 navy peacoat

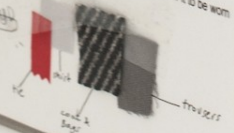

VARAHA - the boar reincarnation of vishnu; always depicted balancing the world on his tusks... as a symbol of when he saved the world.

- this version of the 1967 peacoat comes complete with matching VARAHA bags. Each bag is made up of: a main, Boar shaped bag; a secondary, spherical bag which attaches to the boar... this represents the traditional depiction of varaha.

the hoodless hinged moulded cap is based on anatomically uniting the dual structure (forehead structure/peak) of the american army cap. the moulded version is hinged at the sides to allow it to be worn as a mask, (it has eyeholes)
